EAGLE

EAGLE, IDAHO

The city of Eagle is only a few miles from the busy metropolis of Boise. While the two cities are very close, Eagle is known for its small town charm.

The city of Eagle has been growing quickly over the years and its current population is over 30,000 residents. As it focuses on "smart growth", Eagle offers its residents easy access to shopping, great restaurants, lodging, entertainment, and outdoor recreation.

Eagle is known for its luxury homes, and high end communities. If your wanting to live in the city of Eagle, Idaho, building might be the best option, but plan on spending a "pretty penny" on a home in Eagle. Also, be aware that the inventory of homes in Eagle is very low and there are not enough homes being built to fill this current housing market.

GOLF COURSES

Eagle has two beautiful golf courses, BanBury and Eagle Hills Golf Course.

EAGLE ISLAND STATE PARK

Eagle Island State Park, located within Eagle, Idaho, is bordered on the north and the south by the Boise River. The park features a swimming beach, grassy picnic areas and more than five miles of trails for horseback riding, hiking or walking your dog. The park also has a waterslide and an 18-hole disc golf course.

STAR

STAR, IDAHO

Still close enough to the big city of Boise, but a little further on the outskirts of town, in the country side, sits the city of Star, Idaho.

Star began as one of the earliest settlements in the Boise Valley. It is one of the smaller towns in the Treasure Valley, that is still rich in agricultural.

If you take a walk down the main street of Star, you will notice the city has preserved a lot of it's original aesthetic, as well as, historical buildings and shops. The city of Star, Idaho is known for it's charming country feel.

LOCAL EATS

Star has some great local mom and pop restaurants and bars like the Star Country

Café, The Rustic Table, The Flats 16, Sally's Pub and Grill, Bobby Jean's Coffee, and El Mariachi Loco Restaurante, to name a few!

WALKING TRAILS

Star offers a great variety of outdoor living including over two miles of walking paths along the Boise River. The Star River Walk Park allows visitors to enjoy a nice, quiet walk in nature.

FIREBIRD RACEWAY

If you enjoy car racing the Firebird Raceway is only a short five mile drive just off of highway 16. The Firebird Raceway hosts fifty racing days each season, beginning in April till the end of October.

COUNTRYSIDE OF STAR

KUNA

KUNA, IDAHO

Kuna is located just 18 miles south of Boise and is known for its small town rural feel.

Homeowners will be happy to know that Kuna has one of the lowest housing costs in Ada County, weighing in at 81.7 percent of the national average. Additionally, the cost of living sits at around 91.4 percent of the national average. Statistics of this growing town are primarily young married couples.

Kuna would be a great area to live in to start a family!

SWAN FALLS DAM

A site to see is Swan Falls Dam, which is located at the south side of the Snake River. You will fall in love with these beautiful canyon views. Enjoy the outdoor life fishing for smallmouth bass on the Snake River or take an adventure on the beautiful hiking or biking trails along the canyon.

BIRDS OF PREY

One attraction you will want to check out in Kuna is the Snake River Birds of Prey National Conservation Area. It is home to the greatest concentration of nesting birds of prey in North America, and perhaps, even the world. Free of charge, you'll get to learn about the 485,000 acres that protect North America's largest population of nesting raptors and other birds of prey, such as shorebirds, songbirds, and waterfowl. The best time to spot any of the 20 species of raptors here is from mid-March through June.

BIRDS OF PREY CONSERVATION

NAMPA

NAMPA, IDAHO

Nampa Idaho is one of the fastest-growing communities in the state, with a population of over 100,000 residents as of 2020. With its economic opportunities, affordable housing, and recreational life - it's no wonder why so many people are choosing to live in Nampa.

Nampa was established as a very well known railroad town. The Nampa train depot brought many visitors, as well as, growth to the town.

PARKS AND RECREATION

Nampa ID is famous for its extensive parks system, which boasts 24 local parks. The largest and oldest park in the system is Lakeview Park. The park consists of 44 acres, and visitors love to walk along the tree-lined paths and enjoy the scenic rose garden, which is a favored spot for outdoor weddings in the community. Lakeview Park also has an amphitheater where outdoor concerts are hosted during the summer months. The park is complete with a playground, a water park and a picnic area that is available for reservations.

FORD IDAHO CENTER

The Ford Idaho Center in Nampa is home to many concerts, trade shows, and sporting events. Every year it hosts the Snake River Stampede, which is considered one of the nation's top rodeos, and boy howdy, if you haven't seen professional rodeo, it's something to see!

CALDWELL

CALDWELL, IDAHO

Caldwell is 10 miles northwest of Nampa and is about 28 miles from Boise. The city of Caldwell has grown so much over the past few years, with a lot of new renovations and additions to the downtown area.

INDIAN CREEK PLAZA

Indian Creek Plaza is located in the core area of the downtown Caldwell. The Plaza is centered around retail stores, restaurants, an outdoor ice skating rink in the shape of a ribbon, state for concerts, live entertainment, movies, and a splash pad for outdoor water play.

COLLEGE OF IDAHO

Caldwell is home of College of Idaho, the nation's #1 small liberal arts college.

LOCAL EVENTS

The Canyon County Fair, the Caldwell Night Rodeo (a national top 5 ranked event) and the Buckaroo Breakfast are just a few of the events celebrated by the City of Caldwell.

WINE COUNTRY

Nestled in the scenic Snake River Valley AVA, the Sunnyslope Wine Trail boasts 16 wineries and vineyards, award-winning wines, and intimate tasting experiences, all framed by panoramic views.

BABBY FARM

Babby Farms is a non-profit farm that is home to over 150 animals. All the animals are born in the United States and have been donated from zoos around the country; many of which are effected by natural disasters and need a safe place for their animals to live.

MIDDLETON

MIDDLETON, IDAHO

Middleton, Idaho is located 31 miles northwest of Boise, Idaho. With a population of less than 7,000, Middleton, Idaho is a true Idaho small town.

FARM COUNTRY

DOWNTOWN BOISE

EXPLORE BOISE

Boise is the Capitol City of Idaho. It is the perfect balance of city life and outdoor recreation.

Boise is surrounded by views of both the Rocky and Owyhee Mountains. It's a beautiful view to watch the sunrise over the mountains in the east and set to the mountains in the west.

Boise is a very cultural and diverse city, from rich cuisine, museums, to history, and entertainment. There is always something to do in Boise!

Boise, has been rated as one of the top cities to live in, in the US for the past 15 years, by U.S.News, which says a lot about Boise and why people are moving here!

"Boise's affordability is one of its most attractive qualities, particularly when it comes to housing costs. When you compare it with other metro areas in the Northwest, including Seattle, Portland, and Oregon, Boise shines in terms of value for your housing dollar."

By U.S.News.

Idaho is traditionally known for its low taxes, with a progressive income tax rate between 1.6 and 7.4 percent, and a sales tax of 6 percent. Everything from the cost of car insurance to monthly energy bills is noticeably lower in Idaho than the rest of the country.

It's not wonder why, Boise is a top destination to live, work, and play!

RECREATION

BOGUS BASIN SKI RESORT

Bogus Basin is the premier mountain for anyone in the Boise area. Just 16 miles from downtown, it's an easy escape to the wonderful downhill and Nordic runs this mountain offers.

Whether you want to go snowboarding, skiing, snow shoeing, or snowmobiling, Bogus Basin has it all! If you want to make a weekend adventure of it, we recommend renting out a cabin up there! Then you don't even have to leave this winter wonderland.

IDAHO ICEWORLD

Just off of I-84 East near the Boise Factory Outlets, is Idaho IceWorld. Idaho IceWorld is a premier indoor family ice skating and entertainment center.

Idaho IceWorld features two NHL Regulation-Sized Ice Rinks that offer adult and youth hockey leagues, figure skating programs, Learn-To-Skate and Learn-To-Play Hockey programs and public skating sessions.

Idaho IceWorld offers a family friendly environment with lounge seating, locker rooms, an arcade, as well as, food and refreshments.

RECREATION

If you love the water as much as we do, you will be excited to read about all of the fun things Boise has to offer for outdoor water sports and recreation.

THE BOISE RIVER

The Boise River runs north and west, right through the middle of Boise on the way to the Snake River, near the point where the Snake begins to form part of the Idaho-Oregon border. Not only does it bless the city with wonderful views, it is also a popular playground for residents and visitors.

One of the most popular things to do in Boise, Idaho during the summer time is to float the Boise River. Every year over 125,000 people start their float down the Boise River at Barber Park along to Ann Morrison Park. Barber Park offers a raft and tube rental, as well as, a bus shuttle service. The float takes approximately 2-3 hours, and is about a 6 mile distance.

LUCKY PEAK RESERVOIR

Do you like to go boating, jet skiing, wake surfing, paddle boarding, kayaking, and much more? Then you and your family are going to love going to Lucky Peak Reservoir! Another bonus, is that it is only 15 minutes away from down town Boise.

KIRKHAM HOT SPRINGS LOWMAN, IDAHO

Nestled on the South Fork of the Payette River below a highway campground, a staircase leads adventurers down to the soaking pools and small steaming waterfalls.

LAVA HOT SPRINGS LAVA SPRINGS, IDAHO

Take a soak in one of five pools, ranging in temperature from 102° F to 112°F, to find a pool that is just right for you. Over 2.5 million gallons of hot mineral water course through the pools each day before entering the Portneuf River, keeping the springs ever changing and clean. The grounds surrounding the pools are a botanical wonder and open to the public free of charge.

BURGDORF HOT SPRINGS MCCALL, IDAHO

Burgdorf Hot Springs is a rustic resort nestled in the mountains of Idaho. The hot pools are open to the public daily, 365 days a year.

THE SPRINGS IDAHO CITY, IDAHO

The Springs hot springs retreat is just a short drive northeast of Boise in the historic mining town of Idaho City. Take a soak in a state-of-the-art hot pool fed by a natural hot spring and relax with a massage after a long day of summer fun. With nighttime hours, The Springs is a perfect location to watch the stars or warm up on a cool winter evening.

SANDY POINT BEACH AT LUCKY PEAK STATE PARK

A PLACE THE KIDS WILL LOVE!

Just eight miles south of Boise is beautiful Lucky Peak State Park. Sandy Point Beach at Lucky Peak is the ideal destination to take the family for a day at the beach. Located at the base of Lucky Peak Dam, Sandy Point is popular for its sandy beach and clear, shallow water. It is an outstanding spot for lounging in the sun and playing in the cool water with its mushroom fountain and other water features. They offer paddleboard rentals, showers, changing rooms, and beautiful, shaded picnic areas.
